

HE - Press Biography

Two songwriters - think Gifford/Tilbrook, Jagger/Richards, Lambert & Butler, that sort of thing. In short, old school.

Based in Dorset, UK, and working with a wide cross section of local and not so local musicians, their aim and desire is to create memorable and thought provoking tunes to entertain and engage with audiences wherever they are performed. By road-testing their songs in this way gives them every opportunity to fine-tune in readiness for placement with mainstream artists.

Having worked with each other down through the years, on and off, sparking out in their own directions when circumstances dictate, this song writing duo are always drawn back to collaboration because of the undeniable synergy that exists between them.

Both halves of this song writing pair enjoy a broad range of musical influences, ranging from folk, funk, bluegrass, ambient, mainstream rock and blues, progressive rock with a hint of jazz thrown in for good measure.

To list all their favourite artistes and songwriters would fill this page and more, but to give you an overview, their fav songwriter list would include Lennon & McCartney, Paul Weller, Bob Dylan, Paddy McAloon, Gifford & Tilbrook, John Martyn, Lloyd Cole, Jagger/Richards, Mark Knopfler, Tom Petty, Jeff Lynne, Nick Drake, Kate Bush, Ray Davies, Elvis Costello, David Byrne, Beverley Craven et al.
